FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Mail Fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341 charged in the Single-Count Information.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Ziya Arik, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 1 day, which the Court finds has already been served in full.

The defendant is hereby placed on supervised release for a term of one year under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;
3. The defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; and
4. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee, or otherwise in any business involving equipment lease financing programs of any kind, loan programs, telemarketing activities, or any other business involving the solicitation of funds or cold-calls to customers, without the express written approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such business or employment. The defendant's current employment is deemed acceptable to the Court. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned in whole or in part by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

Bond is exonerated.

Defendant advised of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
